No More Large Campaigns Necessary For Young Men's Christian Association Which is Pride of the City and County—General Rejoicing Over Success of Movement.

$25,000.
The hand on the huge Y. M. C. A. campaign clock at the corner of Main and Market has reached its journey's end—a long and tedious journey but a successful one withal.

The Y. M. C. A., the pride of Washington and Fayette county, is saved—saved through the noble and untiring efforts of as earnest a band of public spirited men and women as ever undertook a public cause—and never was rejoicing greater than it is today in Little Bristle.

A movement which vitally affected every class and condition of her populace has been successfully accomplished and the fact that the battle was hard and at times discouraging but adds to the sweetness of the victory.

The problem of two years has been solved and with the liquidation of the debt on the institution, which is made possible by the success of this campaign, the Association steps out of its dependency and becomes a self-supporting organization.

And not only this, but the reputation of the Washington Y. M. C. A., attested in Y. M. C. A. circles as "the most flourishing institution in the world for its size," is sustained to the honor and glory of her citizenship.

When the campaign opened, or rather re-opened, eight days ago under the direction of Mr. E. K. Smith, financial expert of Rockland, Me., it was done so with some misgiving on the part of those interested as well as the community at large, and when the first few days failed to bring forth crowning results, it became harder than ever to convince prospective givers that it would be a success. The fact that a previous campaign undertaken a few weeks before met with failure only strengthened the barriers, but the indomitable spirit of "we will," which pervaded the workers, and the masterful management of Chairman William Worthington, Henry Brownell, R. C. Peddicord, Charles Reid, Herbert Brownell, Dr. L. P. Howell and a dozen other public spirited crusaders, slowly but surely surmounted these manifold difficulties, and the battle finished at 12:30 o'clock Thursday night.

Not only is the work of the male contingent worthy of praise, but the very effective efforts of twelve or more of Washington's popular young ladies under the captaincy of Miss Pauline Pine, who started in to get subscriptions at noon Thursday are in a large way responsible for the success of the movement. The fact that the girls raised over $200 is a minor item as compared with the enthusiasm their efforts created among the male workers.

At 6 o'clock Thursday evening the workers gathered for what was scheduled to be their last meeting, but when it was learned that the subscription totaled but a little over $18,000 or $7,000 less than the amount to be raised, it was determined that a concerted effort be made to complete the fund by 9:30 o'clock, and one hundred or more workers left the Y. M. C. A. by automobile and afoot to accomplish this result if there was a possibility of so doing. But when the workers gathered again in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at 9:30 it was with little enthusiasm that the report of a little more than a thousand dollars had been added was read.

And then came the supreme test—the test that proved the metal of Washington men. With over $5000 to raise in the face of the fact that nearly all of the hundred or more men in the hall had contributed generously already, Chairman Worthington and his executive staff set about in a final effort to raise the amount necessary from among the men there, and here be it noted that Mr. Worthington's financial contributions, while enormous, were the smallest item in the splendid support he rendered the cause. It is generally conceded that the success of the campaign is due almost directly to the individual efforts of Mr. Worthington, not as a contributor merely, but as a worker and manager.

From 10 o'clock until 11:30 contributions came in slowly despite the eloquent appeals from the various speakers. The intense excitement generated by a secret conviction in the hearts of all present that the obstacle would eventually be removed—in some way—kept the body together, but it was not until 11:30 o'clock that the band started rolling again and contributions began coming in. After the $20,000 mark had been passed enthusiasm waned again and at midnight the workers for the first time entertained real doubt that the venture would succeed.

Chairman Worthington appealed to the men to come to the fore. Other speakers called upon the assemblage in no uncertain terms, and then, at the critical moment, Mr. Frank Fullerton, one of the campaign's heaviest contributors and most loyal supporters, took the floor, and gave a spirited address, pledged a handsome donation, and the rally began. And such a rally! Never has a grander thing been witnessed in Washington than the last determined effort of these workers. It will go down in history as one of the most superb achievements, and when the last $100 had been raised mid a burst of enthusiastic applause that shook building, tears filled many eyes—tears of joy and admiration—and the impromptu son of thanksgiving which followed and in which all joined, was a demonstration that held the hearts of all in one powerful grip.

A large crowd stood at the corner of Main and Market street awaiting the close of the session and when the big hand on the dial was advanced to 25,000, cheer after cheer went up together with a goodly portion of the headwear of the jubilant campaigners.

In discussing the campaign Friday morning a prominent worker said: "We have certainly had a hard campaign and at times, I confess, the outlook was doubtful, but the splendid spirit manifested last night convinces me that it would have been raised even if the amount had been greater. I really did not know it was in the Washington men and I am happily surprised to find it so."

State Secretary A. H. Lichty, of the Y. M. C. A., who remained throughout the crusade and who was one of the workers composing the eloquent coterie of speakers, said yesterday that it was the hardest campaign he had ever seen and the success of such a battle waged against odds well might overwhelm him as the greatest victory he had taken part in his extensive campaign experience.

The success of the campaign puts another feather in the hat of Mr. E. K. Smith, who conducted it, and its success is another link in his long

GREEK AND TURKS ON VERGE OF WAR

By Associated Press.

Athens, Greece, June 12.—A warning to Turkey, which fell little short of a declaration of hostilities, was uttered today by Premier Venizelos, of Greece, in the Chamber of Deputies. The premier's attitude shows that the tension between Greece and Turkey is near the breaking point and that danger of war is imminent. He spoke of the treatment of Greek subjects in Turkey.

Premier Venizelos, who obviously found difficulty in restraining his language when he spoke of the way in which the Turks had treated his fellow countrymen, said: "I do not wish to allow to escape me words which cannot be recalled, but I should fail in my duty if I did not inform the Chamber of Deputies that the situation had become grave—very grave. If a stop is not put to these outrages the Hellenic government will be forced not to content itself with joining in the lamentations of the unhappy refugees."

At the end of his speech Ribot said he was ready to accept interpolations immediately.

TOLLS EXEMPTION REPEAL ADOPTED

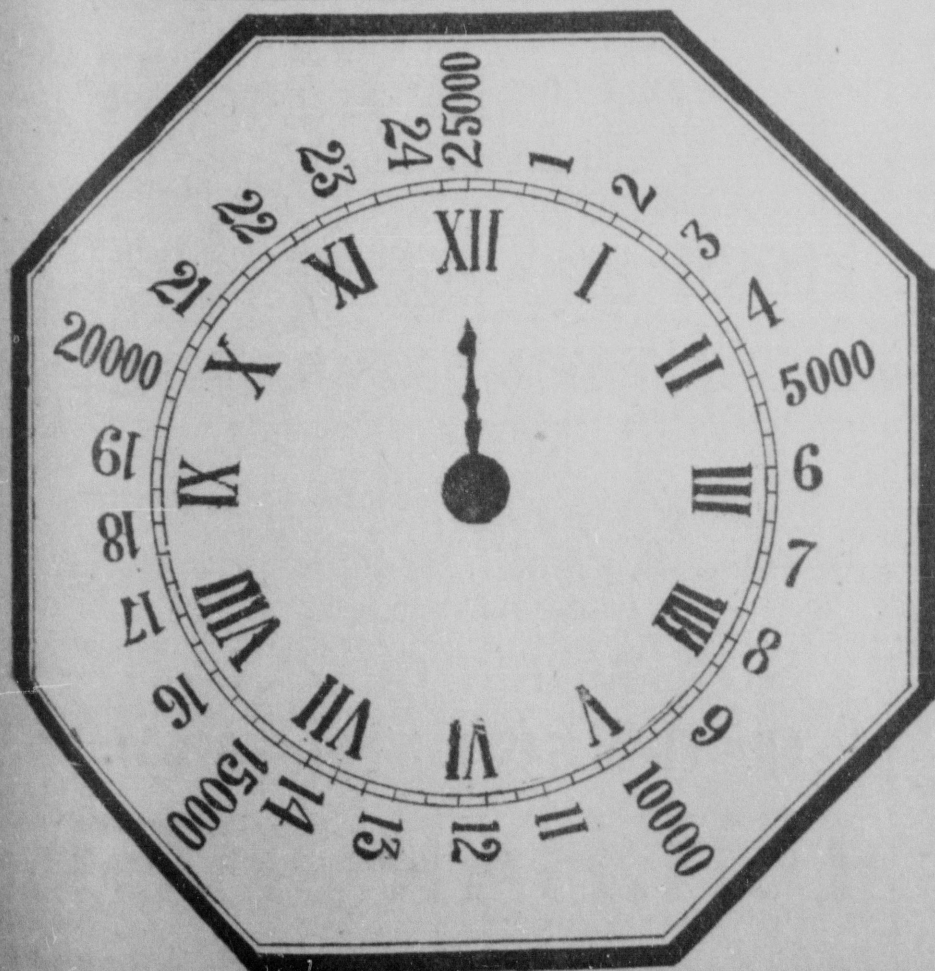

Washington, June 12.—Without the formality of conference, the House today, by a vote of 216 to 71, accepted the Senate amendment to the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption and sent the bill to President Wilson.

An attempt led by Representative Moss, Republican, of West Virginia, to substitute the Senate amendment to the tolls repeal bill, with an affirmative declaration of the right of the United States to discriminate in favor of its own ships, was defeated in the House, 174 to 108.

Washington, June 12.—The question of making the Panama Canal

free to American vessels was brought to the front when the House, on May 23, 1912, incorporated in the act providing for the establishment of civil government in the canal zone, a provision authorizing the President to charge tolls to vessels using the canal, with a proviso exempting American coastwise vessels from such charges. President Taft, in a message to Congress had urged the exemption. The bill had been reported to the House providing tolls for all vessels but the exemption provision was adopted as an amendment. This amendment was in the bill as

Copenhagen, Denmark, June 12.—King Christian X of Denmark today placed an unexpected obstacle in the way of the plan of the Danish cabinet to solve the deadlock in electoral reform, the principal feature in which was the woman suffrage plank, by dissolving the upper house of

The king objected to the inclusion in the dissolution of twelve members of the upper house nominated by himself and declared that he wished only the other 54 members to be affected. Radical politicians have advised the cabinet to resign unless the king gives way.

CANADA TO SAVE ANTELOPE

By Associated Press.
Regina, Saskatchewan, June 12.—The rescue and perpetuation of the rapidly disappearing Prong-horned Antelope is to be undertaken by the Canadian Government. To this end it enlisted the services of Ernest Thompson Seton, the naturalist, and Maxwell Graham, Chief of the Zoological division at Ottawa, who have outlined a scheme which promises success. This proposes the establishment of three fenced parks for antelope in different parts of their favorite range, on areas not desirable for agriculture and in regions that still contain wild antelope.

The first step was to outline the ancient and present range of the antelope, then to ascertain the probable number at large. The combined evidence of many game wardens and mounted police shows that there are yet between one thousand and fifteen hundred antelope still at large in the Canadian Northwest.

Prior to the hard winter of 1906 and 1907, there were at least ten times as many; but that long, fierce spell of frost and deep snow killed them off by thousands. In the spring when the starving remnants were making their way north over the frozen Saskatchewan, the rotten ice gave way, according to one ranchman, and five hundred were engulfed on one occasion as he watched them from the bank.

Seton Graham, acting for the Dominion Government, set out on the 9th of May to select the lands needed. Three parks have been secured, one in each of the prairie provinces—Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. On the two former the wild antelopes still range. All the conditions, climatic, topographic and botanic, have been pronounced perfect. Each park will be about thirty-six square miles in extent. Fencing will begin this summer; it will be horse-high, bull-strong and coyote-proof. A competent warden will be in charge and in residence in each. As soon as the snow comes a careful drive will be organized to stock the fenced ranges.

MY MOTHER--- A PRAYER

The Herald is indebted to Mr. S. A. Murry, of Washington, D. C., for a copy of "My Mother, a Prayer," written by Tom Dillon, one of the most talented writers of the Pacific coast and read to the House, with unanimous consent by Cong. Humphrey, of Washington. In presenting this touching tribute to mother, Mr. Humphrey said, "it will find a fervent response in the heart of every real man."

Mr. Murry is a well known citizen of this city, who left here some time ago to accept a responsible position in the Document room of the House of Representatives.

MY MOTHER—A PRAYER.

(By Tom Dillon.)

For the body you gave me, the bone and the sinew, the heart and the brain that are yours, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the light in my eyes, the blood in my veins, for my speech, for my life, for my being. All that I am is from you who bore me.

For all the love that you gave me, unmeasured from the beginning, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the hand that led me, the voice that directed me, the breast that nestled me, the arm that shielded me, the lap that rested me. All that I am is by you, who nursed me.

For your smile in the morning and your kiss at night, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the tears you shed over me, the songs that you sung to me, the prayers you said for me, for your vigils and ministrations. All that I am is by you, who reared me.

For the faith you had in me, the hope you had for me, for your trust and your pride, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for your praise and your chiding, for the justice you bred into me and the honor you made mine. All that I am you taught me.

For the sore travail that I caused you, for the visions and despair, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the peril I brought you to, the sobs and the moans I wrung from you, and for the strength I took from you, mother, forgive me.

For the fears I gave you, for the alarms and the dreads, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the joys I deprived you, the toils I made for you, for the hours, the days, and the years I claimed from you, mother, forgive me.

For the times that I hurt you, the times I had no smile for you, the caresses I did not give you, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me for my angers and revolts, for my deceits and evasions, for all the pangs and sorrows I brought to you, mother, forgive me.

For your lessons I did not learn, for your wishes I did not heed, for the counsels I did not obey, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me my pride in my youth and my glory in my strength that forgot the holiness of your years and the veneration of your weakness, for my neglect, for my selfishness, for all the great debts of your love that I have not paid, mother, sweet mother, forgive me.

And may the peace and the joy that passeth all understanding be yours, my mother, forever and ever. Amen.

DEATH RIDES IN THE STORM

By Associated Press.
Wheeling, W. Va., June 12.—During a severe electrical storm, which swept over this district last night, 20 houses were destroyed by fire at the Moundsville camp grounds and two men killed by lightning. The fire started when the home of James Bodley, at the camp grounds, was struck by lightning.

J. R. Manley, of Westonburg, W. Va., was killed by lightning while riding on a street car in Holton, a suburb. An unidentified man was struck by lightning east of Wheeling and killed.

BOYS' CONGRESS SHOWS GROWTH

Tremendous growth will be shown at the third Ohio State Boys' Congress which meets at Youngstown, June 15 and 16 as a preliminary feature of the State Sunday School Convention at the same place June 15, 17, and 18.

Nine months ago at the Lima convention only four of the eighty-eight counties were organized, at the Youngstown convention 30 counties will be represented by organizations and many others are in prospect. It is conservatively estimated that two years will see the entire state organized. Already the Boys' Congress has proved its efficiency, and Sunday school leaders have arranged to organize a Girls' Congress along similar lines at the Youngstown convention.

At the Boys' Congress the boys arrange and give all the program, the scope and value of which may be gauged by the following papers which will be read: "The Standard of Honor as the Boy Sees It," "What the Church Means to Me," "The Boys' Congress Idea of Manhood," "Relative Influence of the Adult and Secondary Division in the Sunday School," "The Standard of Christian Athletics," "Making the Sunday School Attractive."

Papers which will be read at the Girls' Congress are: "The Girl and Her Talents," "The Girl in the Sunday School," "The Advantages of the Rural School," "The Possibilities of the City School," "The Girls' Opportunity for Service."

AFTERNOON CLOSING HINGES ON ONE MAN

It is announced that the Wednesday afternoon closing of grocery stores and meat markets, hinges on the decision of one man, who has so far refused to join the others in closing.

If the one dealer who is holding out will agree to close, the first half-holiday may be observed next week, and the practice observed as last summer.

Matinee races and baseball games are planned, one of the attractions to be given each Wednesday afternoon, if the closing becomes effective.

Tax Rate Must Be Lowered

The work of the district tax assessor for this county, and his assistants is concluded in so far as that work has to do with the listing of property for taxation.

Great promises have been made for the efficiency of the machinery provided, in that taxation legislation enacted by the last General Assembly of Ohio, known far and wide throughout the state as the "Warnes law."

The people of the state were promised that the method of listing property for taxation which the new law provided, would prove to be the long sought means of bringing large amounts of personal property, which had been escaping taxation, onto the duplicate. Perhaps no law enacted in recent years by the state legislature has been met with the violent opposition that the Warnes law has encountered.

The new system provided for and used this year for the first time has abundantly proven, by results attained, its efficiency.

The work of the district assessor and his assistants in this county, has resulted in bringing upon the tax duplicate nearly two millions of dollars in personal property.

The great increase of personal property secured is in excess of the claims made by the most ardent advocates of the law.

Now that the Warnes law and the system which it provides have proven their worth, the next question in which the taxpayers are interested is, will the rate of taxation be lowered in proportion to the increase in the duplicate. If not there is no relief.

The people have come forward and listed their personal property for taxation more liberally than ever before and they demand that the rate of taxation be reduced accordingly.

The Warnes law makes no provision for fixing the rate of taxation. The method of arriving at the rate of taxation remains, practically as it was before the enactment of the Warnes law and it is to the officials whose duty it is to gather together the data and fix the rate which is to attach to the property listed on the 1914 duplicate, that the people now look for beneficial results.

Any public official who, for political effect, seeks to maintain the present rate of taxation in spite of the big increase in the duplicate is certain to reap a harvest of public condemnation.

Taxpayers cannot be misled by false statements—they cannot be told, with any reasonable hope of being believed, that with no occasion for extraordinary expenditures of the public funds, the rate of taxation cannot be lowered when we have nearly two million dollars more property upon which to levy the tax.

The real estate owner and the small home owner are entitled to the full proportion of relief which the increased duplicate warrants and they are going to receive it or hold the officials who refuse to grant relief now that it is in their power to do so, responsible.

No official, appointive or elective, will be able to justify his conduct in keeping up the rate of taxation in view of the present conditions.

Poetry For Today

A JUNE-TIME THOUGHT.

Oh, to be a boy again!
Fresh and fair and free as then
Freckles on your face and nose,
Bruises on your shins and toes.
What a joy
Just to be a barefoot boy!

Just to be a little tyke
Chasing lizards up the pike,
Rolling corn-silks for a smoke,
Making friends with poison-oak;
Just to be
Limber-legged and climb a tree!

Just to be a careless brat
With a ten-cent straw for hat,
And a shirt or muslin check
Minus button at the neck;
Just to wear
Clothes for comfort—let 'em tear!

Oh, to be a boy, and swim
In the creek with Joe and Jim,
Hold your breath and take a dive
Good and long, till—sakes alive!
Jim and Joe
Hold their breath, and holler "Oh!"

EXTORTION SUSPECTED

Threatened to Blow Up a Trans-Atlantic Liner.

New York, June 12.—Out of the great throng of persons in City Hall park a man stepped toward the Nathan Hale statue and placed his hands on it. He remained that way for three minutes, finally removed his hat with his left hand and then disappeared in the throng.

The acts of the man were a signal that the Cunard Steamship company would pay $10,000 rather than have one of their ships blown up by dynamite. They were the prelude to the spectacular hunt and capture of Henry Westcott, a Spanish negro, in Bogota, N. J., by about twenty New York detectives, all armed with rifles, shot-guns, or revolvers. Westcott, who is accused of attempted grand larceny and extortion, and who, according to the police, has confessed that he engineered alone the plan of trying to get $10,000 from the Cunard officials, was nabbed just after he had picked up a package supposed to contain the amount in bills from the tracks of the West Shore railroad in Bogota. The package had been dropped from the rear car of a train.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Hyperidrosis.
There is a kind of functional disorder of the sweat glands that results in excessive perspiration. The scientific name for the condition is hyperidrosis. Those who suffer from hyperidrosis are usually not in the best of general health, and the nervous system is especially likely to be at fault. The treatment of the condition, whether its manifestations are local or general, should aim to build up the general health. Any good tonic that gives a fillip to the general system and improves the circulation may relieve the trouble. Cold baths are often useful for their effect on the circulation. In cases where the hands or the feet are affected, immerse them for a few minutes in quite hot water, and then, after drying them with a soft cloth, dust them freely with boric acid powder. If the trouble is very annoying and does not yield to time or to simple remedies like these, consult a physician. The sweat glands themselves may be in a disordered state, and it may be advisable to use the X rays. Those rays have cured cases of hyperidrosis that have resisted every other form of treatment.

MADRID'S ARID SITE.

Parched and Dusty Now, It Was Once a Watered Garden Spot.

Travelers find it hard to believe that Madrid ever abounded with water. The modern town stands on so bleak and arid an eminence, its surroundings, save in early spring, are so parched and dusty and the water peddler's cry of "Agua! Agua!" is so insistent and ubiquitous one fancies Madrid must have been thirsty from the beginning.

Yet its ancient coat of arms was a large flint half immersed in water, with steel hatchets striking it on either side, the ascending sparks forming a sort of canopy around it. Appended was the motto:

I was built on water.
My walls are of fire.
Such is my emblazonment.

This device was emblematic only of the city and its early days before Charles V. had started it on its headlong career of greatness merely because he credited its climate with having cured him of a fever.

At that time Madrid was a small town embowered in gardens and woods and meadows and with springs and wells lavishly supplied by nature. The Manzanares, now a melancholy, meager stream, was of a measurable depth. But with the apportioning of her territory into palaces and lodging houses for the royal hangers-on and the cutting down of the trees to swell the royal treasury the inevitable followed. The sun of well nigh 400 summers has burned and reburned the site of the old town and its bestripped suburbs and dried up the natural moisture. At present the climate of Madrid is nearly the most trying in all Europe.—From Calvert's "Madrid."

Almost Had It.

"Mr. Wigglesworth, let me introduce Mr.—ah—Mr.—ah!"
"Keep on. You'll get it in a minute."
"Confound it! I know your name as well as I do my own, but I can't get it off the end of my tongue."
"MacIntosh."

"That's it! I knew it had something to do with wet grounds and rain checks."—Chicago Record-Herald.

SECRETARY ZANER TAKES UP NEW WORK NEXT WEEK

Following Completion of Successful Campaign, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Ray F. Zaner, Announces Withdrawal To Take Up New Work Monday of Next Week—Successor Not Yet Appointed.

General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Ray F. Zaner, who came to this city nearly four years ago and has remained with the local Association in the capacity of General Secretary until the last dollar of indebtedness has been lifted, announced Friday morning that his resignation, which he tendered some time ago, would be effective Monday of next week, owing to the demand that he assume his new duties as associate general agent of the Missouri State Life Insurance Company.

Mr. Zaner's successor has not yet been named, and may not be chosen for a short time, although several experienced men have applied for the position. Physical Director McClung will temporarily fill the office.

In severing his connection with the Y. M. C. A. as general secretary, Mr. Zaner leaves behind him a splendid record, as he began work in a community where Y. M. C. A. work was new, and it was necessary to begin at the very foundation and work upward.

Owing to the nature of his work the general public was not in position to see much of the actual results of his labors at the time they were done, but assisted by the local Y. M. C. A. workers he has laid the foundation for greater work, and leaves the institution in splendid condition.

The new work of Mr. Zaner will not require his removal from this city. The headquarters of the Missouri State Life Company are in Lima, and Mr. P. A. Altland, Mrs. Zaner's father, is the general agent of the company.

DEATH CLAIMS MILTON NOBLE

Mr. Milton D. Noble, aged 55 years, died at his home on South Fayette street, at 10:30 Friday morning, after nine years of suffering from bone cancer, an affliction which he bore uncomplainingly.

Mr. Noble was born in Pickaway county and spent his early life in Ross county, moving to this county some 24 years ago, where he has since resided. He was for many years a dealer in live stock.

With the appearance of the affliction which caused his death, Mr. Noble employed the best physicians and surgeons to combat the ravages of the affliction, and during the past few years he has undergone 14 operations and a few months ago went east where he took Dr. Kelley's radium treatments, obtaining little or no relief through the treatment.

The deceased leaves a widow and two small sons, Davis Milton and Geo. M. He also leaves four brothers, John, of this city; C. H. Noble, of Clarksburg; Lafayette N. Noble, of New Holland, and George M. Noble, of Bluffton, Ind., besides two sisters, Mrs. Ad Duff, east of town and Mrs. Dora Dick, of Chicago.

Funeral services will be held at the First Baptist church, Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, and interment will be made in the Washington cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. McKillip left at once for a lake trip. They have the best wishes of many friends throughout the county.

FLOWER MISSION DAY LARGELY ATTENDED

The celebration of Flower Mission Day by the County W. C. T. U., at the County Infirmary Thursday, was rather a departure from previous custom, but a pronounced success throughout.

Instead of the former plan of visiting both the Infirmary and the Children's Home, Supt. and Mrs. Tway brought the children of the Home to the Infirmary for the celebration.

A picnic dinner in the beautiful grove of the infirmary farm was a feature of the day greatly enjoyed.

In the afternoon there was a delightful program given by the various unions of the county and the children of the Home.

All of the unions were largely represented, over 200 in attendance, and quantities of flowers presented. Supt. and Mrs. Frank Casey extended every courtesy to the guests.

OAK LAWN SCHOOL UNDER THE HAMMER

Oak Lawn school, one of Washington's oldest educational buildings, passes under the hammer Saturday afternoon. Since the erection of the handsome new building at Cherry Hill it has been of no further use.

The sale of the property, located on Clinton avenue has been ordered by the Board of Education and will be given to the highest bidder at an auction on the court house steps Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The proceeds of the sale will be applied to the public school fund and in furthering the educational advantages of Washington.

The old structure is nearly fifty years old and was the training place of not a few of Washington's more prominent sons and daughters.

and unbroken chain of financial campaigns. The splendid system with which the campaign was conducted was an important factor in the accomplishment of desired results.

What the Workers Did.

An important item, in fact one of the most important items to the success of the campaign; an item that has been before mentioned and which the Washington public is fully familiar with but which is not to be lost sight of, is the donation of Mrs. Madeline Sharp Davies, always one of the Y. M. C. A.'s staunchest champions. Mrs. Davies donated the corner building of the Y. M. C. A. property some time ago, the only obligation attached, and that at the request of the Y. M. C. A. itself, being that the institution pay an annuity to Mrs. Davies the rest of her life of $1200 per year, providing that the amount realized from the building equaled that amount. As her donation to the campaign Mrs. Davies insisted that the annuity be cut in half, with the same provisions, which means an income to the Y. M. C. A. of $600 annually from this source alone.

Another contribution of note is that of the Hon. Humphrey Jones. Mr. Jones donated to the Y. M. C. A. $2,000, to be paid conditionally. The condition is that the money will be turned over to the institution in the event that it is in need of it in order to cancel indebtedness within the next three years.

To record all of the splendid contributions made by Washington and Fayette county men would be to consume reams of paper, without arriving at any definite figure, but prominently in the list of large and cheerful givers are the names of Mr. Wm. Worthington, chairman, Frank Fullerton, Charles Reid, Henry and Herbert Brownell, R. C. Peddicord, William Campbell, J. Earl McLean, Ben Jamison, James Ford, Craig Bros., Jess W. Smith, Frank L. Stutson, George Inskeep, Robert Howat, Frank C. Parrett, Nathan Creamer of Jeffersonville, W. W. Fenner, A. S. Ballard, George Jackson, Jess Millikan, A. F. Hopkins, W. E. Ireland, C. E. Lloyd, Dr. L. P. Howell, Elmer Hukill, H. G. Coffman, Mayor Charles F. Coffey, David Hopkins, Fred Creamer, Will Ford and as many as fifty others.

A pleasing feature of the closing hours of the campaign was the readiness shown at all times of Mr. Worthington to meet any conditional offer calling for a duplication.

If ever the men of Washington and Fayette county were shown in their true light it was during the concluding hours of the campaign Friday night, and collectively they measure up to a standard of about 99 per cent., genuine.

State Secretary Talks.

State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, A. H. Lichty, who took an active part in the local campaign during the past few days, is unstinted in his praise of the men who went forth and devoted time and money to the lifting of all indebtedness from the local association.

"During the past four years I have assisted in raising nearly $2,000,000 in this state for the Y. M. C. A., but never before have I seen odds greater than those under which the local men labored," said Mr. Lichty, "and the men who did the work are the ones who have once more brought honor to the city and spread its fame throughout the Y. M. C. A. world, while this achievement here helps other similar movements elsewhere." Continuing Mr. Lichty said in part: "I have never seen harder work on the part of campaigners than that put forth here, and the remarkable part of it is that some of the men who had previously subscribed liberally and devoted much time and effort to the work, did not flinch when it came to the final show-down and more money was required to reach the goal."

"Your Association is now in a splendid financial condition, and has passed through a great crisis and the men and women, too, who have done the work, are deserving of the greatest praise that can be given them."

Mr. Lichty stated that he will return to this city for a week during the early fall, and assist in shaping the work for the winter. He pointed out how the local Y. M. C. A. has been handicapped, and how it can now go forward in carrying out work which previously has been impossible. The committee in turn has praised Mr. Lichty for his efforts, and a warm friendship has arisen between him and every one with whom he has come in contact.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans and daughter, Miss Isabel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pyley, Mr. Allen Martin attended the funeral of Mrs. Evan's brother, Mr. C. L. Evans.

HEAT SOFTENS VARNISH; DRESSES STICK FAST.

Pottsville, Pa., June 12.—The intense heat was responsible for a very awkward situation at the Hippodrome theater, where more than 1,000 persons, mostly women, were attending a midsummer operatic performance. When the curtain fell and the women prepared to leave many discovered they couldn't get up, at least without leaving parts of their pretty white dresses behind. The heat had softened the new varnish with which the seats had recently been painted and the women stuck fast. More than 200 women left the auditorium with ruined dresses.

In Social Circles

Washington society has never been so tendered a lovelier affair than the garden party, given by Mrs. David S. Craig, in compliment to her nieces, Mrs. Conrad Schweitzer, Miss Clara Maynard, of Waterloo, Ia.; Miss Mary Craig, Miss Charlotte Dahl and Miss Nina Dahl, Thursday afternoon. June had blossomed in all of its perfection and the picturesque home, with its wide sweep of velvet lawn, luxuriant trees and verdure, the background for a wealth of summer roses, beneath a canopy of blue sky, presented a scene of marvelous summer beauty.

The reception line formed on the immense side veranda, which resembled nothing so much as a beautiful conservatory, with bowls of roses and trailing green in the deep window embrasures, hanging baskets overhead and vines covering the stone pillars and framing a picture of the lawn, dotted with the rainbow tints of exquisite summer toilets.

Between three and four hundred guests were most cordially welcomed by the hostess and her charming quintet of nieces, who, with Mrs. T. H. Craig made up an extremely attractive receiving line.

Mrs. Craig was wearing a chic suit of white linen ratine, with embroidered batiste waist and girdle of moire.

Mrs. T. H. Craig wore white crepe with cluney lace garniture.

Mrs. Schweitzer's gown of white crepe shadow lace, draped over pink was singularly becoming to her fair type. Miss Maynard, a beautiful girl, with much charm of manner, wore rose embroidered crepe, having tier skirt, with white tunic.

Miss Mary Craig was handsome in white crepe, elaborately trimmed with lace and embroidery, and wide sash of turquoise blue moire taffeta.

Miss Charlotte Dahl, who is one of the most charming girls in Washington's younger set, wore white embroidered organdie and lace, with girdle of apple green.

Miss Nina Dahl looked pretty in ecru embroidered net, with two toned lavender girdle.

Assisting the hostesses were Mesdames H. B. Dahl, W. D. Craig, Ray Maynard, Clarence Craig, John Durant, Fuller Hess, Clarence Baer, Garrie Spragg, Misses Edith Gardner, Bess Cleaveland, Nelle Ireland, Mary Dahl, Doris Willis, Virginia Campbell, Aileen Hess.

A delicious summer collation was served under the big trees, and a huge bowl of fruit punch on tapis all afternoon.

Clusters of crimson ramblers were the guest favors.

Enjoying to the fullest extent the pleasure of the afternoon, and the cool breezes which mitigated the extreme heat of the day, the guests lingered until evening shadows were falling.

Among guests from out-of-town were: Mrs. J. L. Mahan, of St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Robert Palmer, of Cincinnati; Miss Marie Mobley, of Hope, Ark.; Miss Pauline Foster, of Waverly; Miss Helen Black, of Circleville; Mrs. Janes, Mrs. Frank Dill, of Jeffersonville; Mrs. H. K. Stewart, Miss Lora Martin, of Spring Hill farm, Mrs. Frank C. Parrett, Mrs. Marshall, of Parretts; Mrs. Val McCoy, Mrs. Roy Haglar, of Haglar's; Mrs. W. J. Galvin, of Jamestown.

A jolly party of the class of 1914 picnicking at Rock Mills Thursday evening included Miss Lillian Davis, and guest, Miss Marie Mobley, of Hope, Ark.; Misses Mary Weaver, Ada Woodward, Winona DeWitt, Bliss Casey, of Urbana; Howard Gray, Robert Lanum, Hubert Murray, Frank Thornton.

The June meeting of C. W. B. M. of the Christian church met with G. W. Blackwell Wednesday afternoon.

A very interesting program was rendered. Those taking part were: Mrs. Clifford Irvin, Miss Bernice Sessler, Mrs. Vangundy, who was the delegate to the state convention at Bowling Green, and gave a most interesting report from the convention. The hostess served dainty refreshments and all enjoyed a social hour.

EXPECT NEW CARS FIRST OF NEXT WEEK

A letter from General Passenger Agent Bell, of the D. T. & I. railroad, states that the new Edison-Beach motor cars will be placed in commission on the road first of next week, probably Monday.

Mr. Bell calls attention to the fact that the delay has been due entirely to the inability of the manufacturers to place the cars in the hands of the

D. T. & I. at the time agreed upon, and that the cars have now been several days on their way to delivery.

REPEAL MEASURE PASSES SENATE

Long Struggle Ends In a Victory
For the Administration.

VOTE WAS FIFTY TO THIRTY-FIVE

Eleven Democrats, Twenty-three Republicans and One Progressive Line Up Against the Bill—Close of Debate Marked by Near Encounter Between Two Senators—Amended Measure Now Goes to the House.

Washington, June 12.—The amended bill repealing the tolls exemption clause affecting coastwise shipping of the United States in the Panama canal act, passed the senate by a vote of 50 to 35. Eleven Democrats voted against the repeal, but this loss was more than offset by thirteen Republicans who supported the president. One Democrat, Senator Walsh, was paired against the bill, and two Republicans, Lodge of Massachusetts and Stephenson of Wisconsin, were paired in favor of the bill.

The following senators voted against the bill: Ashurst, Chamberlain, Lane, Martine, Newlands, O'Gorman, Ransdell, Reed, Shields, Thomas and Vardaman—Democrats, 11. Borah, Brady, Bristow, Burleigh, Catron, Clapp, Clark of Wyoming, Cummins, Dillingham, Dupont, Goff, Jones, LaFollette, Lippitt, Page, Perkins, Smith of Michigan, Smoot, Sutherland, Townsend, Warren, Weeks and Work—Republicans, 23. Pennington, Progressive, 1. Total noes, 35. Pennington and Pomeroy of Ohio both voted for the bill.

The measure now goes back to the house, which is expected to accept the Simmons-Norris amendment, specifically reserving all rights the United States may have had under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

The closing hours of the debate were signalized by a near encounter between Senators Vardaman of Mississippi and West of Georgia and also by a sharp personal colloquy between Vardaman and his colleague, Senator John Sharp Williams.

The trouble arose while Senator West was replying to Vardaman. The Mississippi senator, who has opposed the repeal of the tolls exemption law, had just concluded a speech in which he bitterly arraigned senators who have followed the president for repeal and had changed the views expressed by them when the tolls exemption bill was originally passed.

Near Encounter.

"The edict has gone forth from the White House," said Mr. Vardaman, and he added that this alone had saved the cause of repeal. Among other things Vardaman attacked the transcontinental railways and the Carnegie peace foundation for spending money to bring about repeal.

Replying to this particular charge, West, who was standing near Mr. Vardaman's seat as he spoke, said: "There has been much criticism indulged in on this side. I have tried to be indulgent and allowed the senators who occupied the opposite side of this question to view it as they saw fit. There has been charged here to the Carnegie foundation the expenditure of $30,000. Who knows but what the shipping interests have spent $100,000 in order to secure the defeat of this bill?"

"Have you been offered any?" inquired Mr. Vardaman, slowly rising and addressing Mr. West.

"Don't you say that to me," quickly retorted the Georgia senator.

"Well, you are making an intimation that somebody else has been," retorted Vardaman, advancing with clinched fists.

The senate was in great commotion, but order was soon restored.

Following the settlement for the time of the trouble, John Sharp Williams took occasion to lecture Vardaman.

UNDERWOOD HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Washington, June 12.—As Representative Underwood was riding to the Capitol on a streetcar a runaway team attached to a heavy wagon crashed into the conveyance, demolishing the front end of the car, splintering the wagon and killing both horses. Mr. Underwood was sitting on the forward cross seat of the car and was thrown to the floor. The pole of the wagon punched a hole through the front end of the car, missing Mr. Underwood by inches. His hand was cut by the flying glass.

One of the demonstrations will be held in Columbus July 30 and the other in Cleveland late in September. In Columbus petitions for a referendum will be filed with the secretary of state.

SUFFRAGE FORECAST

What Poll of Convention of Women's Clubs Shows.

Chicago, June 12.—Of the 1,716 delegates to the biennial session of the General Federation of Women's Clubs who are entitled to vote, suffragist leaders claim a majority. Illinois alone has 297 delegates and other suffrage states are said to be well represented.

The suffragists also assert that a poll of the resolutions committee, which has in its power the matter of action on the suffrage question, shows four of them in favor of the indorsement of suffrage.

The resolutions committee gained the power to decide if suffrage shall come before the convention when the report of the committee on rules and regulations consigning all resolutions to the resolutions committee was adopted at the first session. The least the suffragists expect is that a minority report of the resolutions committee will throw the whole question on the floor.

The report of the credentials committee, presented by Miss Grace Temple of Chicago, showed that Illinois, a suffrage state, has 297 delegates present, while the next largest number is eighty-one, from Ohio.

ACCEPT DEMANDS OF THE MEDIATORS

American Delegates Prevent Disruption of Conference.

ACCEPT PLAN THEY OPPOSED

Selection of Provisional President of Mexico to Have the Sanction of General Huerta—Carranza Held to Have No Special Privilege in Settlement of Internal Affairs of Mexico—Mediators Play Last Card.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 12.—The United States government was forced not only to display its hand in the Mexican situation, but also to yield to the demands of the mediators.

For about one hour it was agreed on all sides that the conference was at an end. The mediators, exasperated by the long delay, decided to play their last card and to publish in full all the correspondence existing between them and Carranza, the Constitutionalist leader. This was done, despite the earnest protest presented by the American delegates on behalf of the state department.

One hour later Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, the American delegates, appeared at the Clifton House, and a full conference of all Mexican and American delegates and the South American envoys was held. Justice Lamar and Mr. Lehmann announced that the United States was willing to subscribe to the first plan for the settlement of the Mexican dispute submitted by the mediators more than two weeks ago.

The plan which the United States government now is willing to accept is the one which it has most bitterly opposed. It provides for the selection of a provisional president to take the place of General Huerta pending the holding of a constitutional election in Mexico. The selection of this new provisional president is, however, to be sanctioned by General Huerta. The manner in which the transfer of government is to take place and the exact form of succession have not yet been decided upon. The mediators have in this manner completely won the friendly fight in which they have been engaged with the American delegates. The decision arrived at is a vindication of their contention that Carranza is entitled to no special privilege in the settlement of the internal affairs of Mexico.

Documents Made Public.

The decision of the mediators to make clear their stand in the Carranza matter, regardless of the protests of the Washington government, was arrived at suddenly. The A. B. C. envoys agreed that their dignity would be greatly impaired by further delay. They felt that the time had arrived to disregard completely the Mexican rebels and to make clear their own stand. Immediately thereafter the messages were given out.

The documents made public by the mediators include the telegram sent by the three envoys to General Carranza on May 3, in which they declare that they will withdraw their invitation to him if he does not consent to an armistice; the message sent to the mediators by R. Zuburan Capmany, and which was delivered here by Juan Uruquidi; finally, the message sent from here by the mediators in reply to Zuburan's note.

The last one of these three documents is the only one which has not been printed, at least in part, previously. It contains an invitation to the Constitutional chieftain to take part in the mediation conference under certain conditions.

In a statement made by Justice Lamar after the conference, he said: "I am authorized by the mediators to say that we have substantially agreed on the first plan, which related to the transfer of authority and the establishment of government."

MAY DROP CARRANZA

Washington, June 12.—With the favorable developments at Niagara Falls came news also of a disturbing character from Vera Cruz. There were reports that General Funston had informed the war department of further movements of Huerta's troops near Vera Cruz and had expressed some opinion in favor of the extension of the American lines.

The news of the arrival at Tampico of the Ward liner Antilla with arms and ammunition on board for the rebels added further to the uncertainties of the situation.

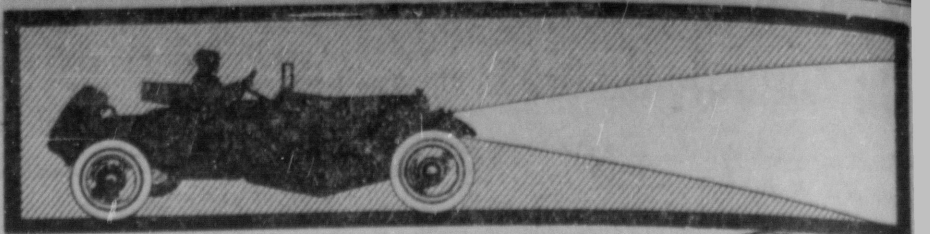

The strong likelihood that Carranza has now been finally barred from the Niagara Falls conferences led to much speculation here as to the course of the United States at Niagara Falls in the immediate future. While as a general principle this government will maintain that there can be no settlement by mediation without the consent of the Constitution-ists, this does not mean that the United States will regard itself as tied to Carranza. In fact, evidences are already appearing that this government is becoming exasperated over Carranza's attitude and that some movement may be undertaken to cut the ground from beneath him in Mexico.

MANY DEAD IN FRANCE

By Associated Press.

Cerebre, France, June 12.—A jail governor was assassinated and a large number of convicts wounded and killed as the result of a revolution in the Spanish prison of Figueras just over the frontier line of Catalonia. The convicts took advantage of the absence of most of the prison guards whose attention was attracted by a procession outside the jail in celebration of the religious festival of Corpus Christi.

QUARTER MILLION IDLE FREIGHT CARS

At the present time there are in round numbers 250,000 idle freight cars in the United States. The geographical distribution of these idle "empties" shows that all sections of the country are about equally affected. Perhaps the southwest is a little more fortunate than the rest of the country.

The iron and coal roads are blocked with idle equipment. Never before in the history of the country, except in the great depression of 1908 that followed the acute panic of October, 1907, have there been as many idle cars as today. Their number is steadily increasing. The grain carriers hope that with the movement of the crops they will make a better showing. A prominent railroad man, discussing this situation yesterday, said:

"We see nothing 'psychological' in this state of affairs. This is not any mental hallucination, but a mighty serious problem. Every idle car means an actual loss of money."—Enquirer.

SENATOR VARDAMAN

In a Near Encounter With Senator West of Georgia.

it went to the Senate.

Before the bill passed the Senate, Great Britain, on July 11, 1912, filed a formal protest against the proposed exemption. The note transmitted to the State Department contended:

"The British Government thinks that to allow American vessels to pass through the canal without the payment of tolls would be to violate the Hay-Pauncefote treaty whether the tolls are not collected, or whether if collected they are refunded. As to coastwise trade, the British Government thinks it would be difficult to frame a provision which would not do injustice to their interests."

The Hay-Pauncefote treaty superceded the Clayton-Bulwer treaty under which Great Britain and the United States were, jointly, to build the canal. The Hay-Pauncefote agreement, after providing rules for the regulation of the canal, based on the rules governing Suez canal traffic, set forth:

"The canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations observing these rules on terms of entire equality, so that there shall be no discrimination against any such nation or its citizens or subjects in respect of the conditions or charges of traffic or otherwise. Such conditions or charges of traffic shall be just and equitable."

The British note of protest started a lengthy diplomatic correspondence on the subject. Great Britain throughout claimed that the United States could not, under the terms of the treaty, make toll exemption of any vessels, whether its own, or of other nations. Secretary Knox, who conducted the correspondence for the United States, in several lengthy notes contended that the exemption of American coastwise shipping was in no way a discrimination against other traffic using the canal. He asserted that the exemption was in the nature of a subsidy, paid, not by imposing the tolls for certain American vessels upon other ships passing through the canal, but by the American taxpayers themselves in paying for the maintenance of the canal.

"The avoidance of possible friction," said the note, "has been one of the main objects of those methods of arbitration of which the United States has been for so long a foremost and consistent advocate."

Throughout the first year of President Wilson's administration there was a constant agitation for the repeal of the exemption clause. The President let it be known that he favored the repeal, and on March 5, 1914, he delivered an address to Congress in joint session, earnestly urging the repeal. The exemption, he said, was a "mistaken economic policy" and was "in plain contravention of the Treaty."

"The large thing to do," said the President, "is the only thing we can afford to do; a voluntary withdrawal from a position everywhere questioned and misunderstood. We ought to reverse our action without raising the question whether we were right or wrong, and so once more deserve our reputation for generosity and the redemption of every obligation without quibble or hesitation."

"I ask this of you in support of the foreign policy of the Administration. I shall not know how to deal with other matters of even greater delicacy and nearer consequence if you do not grant it to me in ungrudging measure."

Speaker Clark, Majority Leader Underwood, and other Democratic leaders in the House opposed President's demand for the repeal, but after a vigorous legislative struggle the House, on March 31 passed the Sims repeal bill. The measure then went to the Senate.

In the Senate, the fight was prolonged and brought the leading debaters of that body to the front. Party lines were largely eliminated. Senator Root and Senator Lodge were prominent among the Republicans who supported President Wilson's position in debate and with their votes; the fight against the repeal was led from the Democratic ranks, with Senators O'Gorman and Chamberlain leading the opposition to the President.

CAPITALIST DEAD

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, June 12.—Thomas Dolan, 82, one of the wealthiest men in Philadelphia, and once a member of the Widener-Elkins-Whitney St. Railway Syndicate, died today at his home in Torresdale, near here. The son of a poor toll-gate keeper, Mr. Dolan started business life as a clerk, entering the textile trade and becoming one of the largest textile manufacturers in Philadelphia. He later went into finance and became interested in street railways which made him a large fortune.

SUFFRAGE TO BE DISCUSSED

By Associated Press.

Chicago, June 12.—The question of woman suffrage will receive the fullest consideration at the conference of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. This announcement was made suddenly, but very emphatically, by Mrs. P. V. Pennybacker, president of the Federation of Women's Clubs at the opening of the session today. She was greeted with a storm of applause.

THREE EFFORTS TO BURN CHURCH

By Associated Press.

London, June 12.—A determined attempt was made by militant suffragettes today to burn the ancient church of St. Margaret's at Chipstead fourteen miles southeast of London. Three distinct fires were fed by fire-lighters composed of squares of felt saturated with oil, set by the arson squad. The flames were extinguished before the church was much damaged.

BIG FIRM CAUGHT

Chicago, June 12.—Notice was posted on the Board of Trade today that Sidney Long & Company had failed to pay their debit balance at the clearing house. The firm has been active on the bull side of the wheat market which has recently suffered a sharp decline.

Friendliness of London.

There is no friendliness like the friendliness of London. Six or seven years ago I went rather frequently to a certain tea shop, which has every afternoon a crowd of men taking their tea and playing dominoes and chess. We used to talk occasionally, but none of us ever knew the name of any of the others. Then for five years I did not go near the place until one day when I dropped in almost by accident. At once there was a greeting and a welcome from at least half a dozen. The other day I went in again after another absence of six months, and the greeting was the same. This will do to tell those people who insist that London is an unfriendly place.—London Citizen.

VOL. 29. NO. 138

WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO, FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1914

Ten Cents a Week

Workers Win Hard Fight for $25,000

Complete Victory Crowns Efforts of Band of Workers Who So Unreservedly Devoted Their Time to the Y. M. C. A. Cause.

STIRRING SCENES ACCOMPANY FINAL EFFORTS TO PLACE Y. M. C. A. ON SOUND BUSINESS BASIS

Reputation for Progressiveness Maintained and World Still Knows That "Washington Does Things," and Does Them Right—How Several Thousands of Dollars Was Raised in Few Hours.

there was a possibility of so doing. But when the workers gathered again in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at 9:30 it was with little enthusiasm that the report of a little more than a thousand dollars had been added was read.

And then came the supreme test—the test that proved the metal of Washington men. With over $5000 to raise in the face of the fact that nearly all of the hundred or more men in the hall had contributed generously already, Chairman Worthington and his executive staff set about in a final effort to raise the amount necessary from among the men there, and here be it noted that Mr. Worthington's financial contributions, while enormous, were the smallest item in the splendid support he rendered the cause. It is generally conceded that the success of the campaign is due almost directly to the individual efforts of Mr. Worthington, not as a contributor merely, but as a worker and manager.

From 10 o'clock until 11:30 contributions came in slowly despite the eloquent appeals from the various speakers. The intense excitement an excitement generated by a secret conviction in the hearts of all present that the obstacle would eventually be removed—in some way—kept the body together, but it was not until 11:30 o'clock that the ball started rolling again and contributions began coming in. After the $20,000 mark had been passed enthusiasm waned again and at midnight the workers for the first time entertained real doubt that the venture would succeed.

Chairman Worthington appealed to the men to come to the fore. Other speakers called upon the assemblage in no uncertain terms, and then, at the critical moment, Mr. Frank Fullerton, one of the campaign's heaviest contributors and most loyal supporters, took the floor, and gave a spirited address, pledged a handsome donation, and the rally began. And such a rally! Never has a grander thing been witnessed in Washington than the last determined effort of these workers. It will go down in history as one of the most superb achievements, and when the last $100 had been raised mid a burst of enthusiastic applause that shook building, tears filled many eyes—tears of joy and admiration—and the impromptu son of thanksgiving which followed and in which all joined, was a demonstration that held the hearts of all in one powerful grip.

A large crowd stood at the corner of Main and Market street awaiting the close of the session and when the big hand on the dial was advanced to 25,000, cheer after cheer went up together with a goodly portion of the headwear of the jubilant campaigners.

In discussing the campaign Friday morning a prominent worker said: "We have certainly had a hard campaign and at times, I confess, the outlook was doubtful, but the splendid spirit manifested last night convinces me that it would have been raised even if the amount had been greater. I really did not know it was in the Washington men and I am happily surprised to find it so."

State Secretary A. H. Lichty, of the Y. M. C. A., who remained throughout the crusade and who was one of the workers composing the eloquent coterie of speakers, said yesterday that it was the hardest campaign he had ever seen and the success of such a battle waged against odds well might overwhelming was the greatest victory he had taken part in his extensive campaign experience.

The success of the campaign puts another feather in the hat of Mr. E. K. Smith, who conducted it, and its success is another link in his long

GREEK AND TURKS ON VERGE OF WAR

By Associated Press.
Athens, Greece, June 12.—A warning to Turkey, which fell little short of a declaration of hostilities, was uttered today by Premier Venizelos, of Greece, in the Chamber of Deputies. The premier's attitude shows that the tension between Greece and Turkey is near the breaking point and that danger of war is imminent. He spoke of the treatment of Greek subjects in Turkey.

Premier Venizelos, who obviously found difficulty in restraining his language when he spoke of the way in which the Turks had treated his fellow countrymen, said: "I do not wish to allow to escape me words which cannot be recalled, but I should fail in my duty if I did not inform the Chamber of Deputies that the situation had become grave—very grave. If a stop is not put to these outrages the Hellenic government will be forced not to content itself with joining in the lamentations of the unhappy refugees."

MAY MASSACRE 25,000 GREEKS

By Associated Press.
London, June 12.—A dispatch from Mitylene, an island off the coast of Asia Minor, says that Turkish regulars with machine guns and a force of bashi-bazooks, today commenced an attack on the town of Aivalik on the coast of the mainland. As the town is inhabited by 25,000 Greeks, a massacre is feared.

OFFICIALLY BAR DOORS

LORIMER'S BANK IS FLOUNDERING

By Associated Press.
Chicago, June 12.—The LaSalle State Trust and Savings bank of which former United States Senator William Lorimer is president, was taken in charge today by the state bank examiner.

No statement of what the closing of the LaSalle street bank actually means in dollars was made. For the last three weeks, according to officials, there has been a mild run on the bank and more than $1,000,000 of deposits withdrawn. Three other small banks were also closed, it was said for their own protection.

END EXPECTED

By Associated Press.
Chicago, June 12.—Adlai E. Stevenson, former vice-president of the United States, is slowly sinking and the end is likely to come at any time. He took a small amount of nourishment today for the first time in 36 hours.

FRENCH DESERT THE NEW PREMIER

By Associated Press.
Paris, June 12.—Intense excitement was manifested in the Chamber of Deputies today when Alexandre Felix Ribot, the new premier, mounted to the tribune to read the cabinet declaration of policy. In many quarters doubt was expressed whether the cabinet would be able to live through the day owing to the attitude concerning the rigid maintenance of the three years military service law. At the end of his speech Ribot said he was ready to accept interpolations immediately.

RIBOT RESIGNS.

Paris, June 12.—The new cabinet, of which Senator Ribot is premier, was defeated in the first division taken in the new Chamber of Deputies, by a vote of 306 to 262. The premier immediately resigned. He had held office but one day.

DAYTON FACING CHARGE

By Associated Press.
Washington, June 12.—Resolutions of impeachment against Federal District Judge A. G. Dayton, of West Virginia, were introduced in the House today and without opposition referred to the Judicial committee. Representative Neeley impeached Judge Dayton on the floor, charging him with "high crimes and misdemeanors, conspiracy with corporations and individuals to bring about the removal of Judge John J. Jackson so that he might get his place of favoritism to corporations having extensive litigation in his court, and of personal and judicial misconduct."

AGONY IS OVER

TOLLS EXEMPTION REPEAL ADOPTED

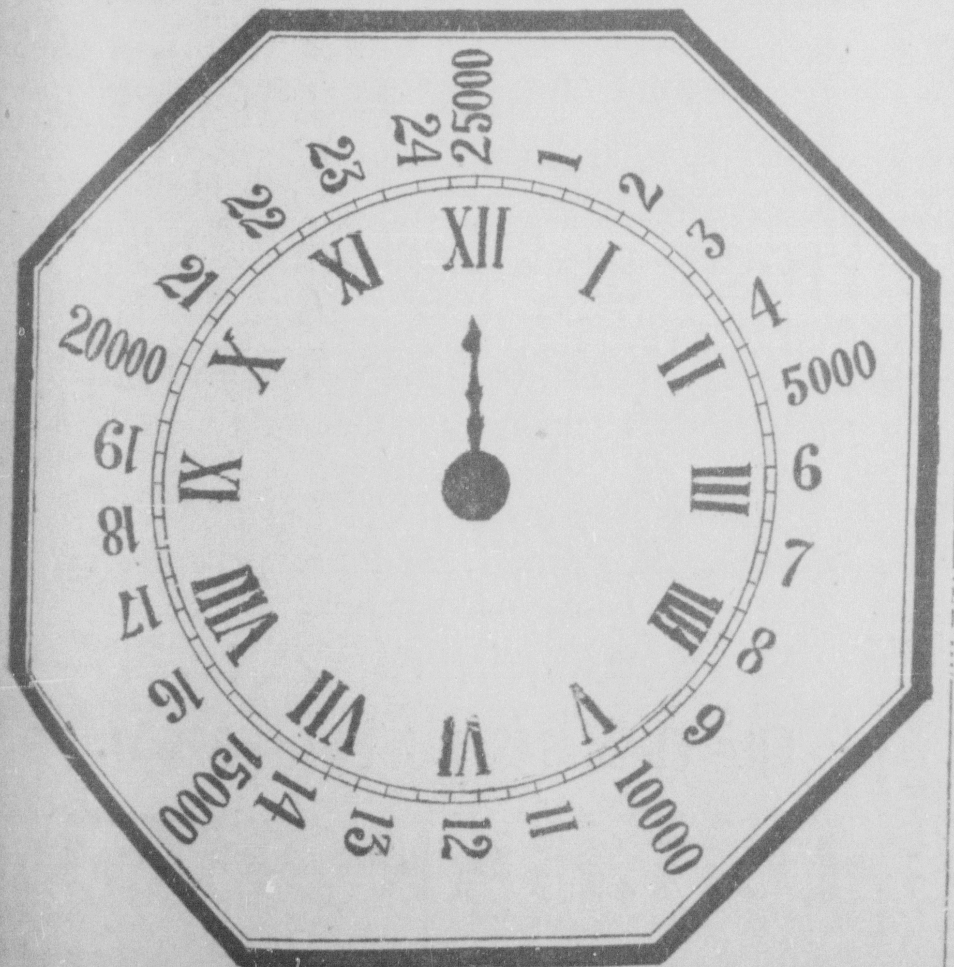

Washington, June 12.—Without the formality of conference, the House today, by a vote of 216 to 71, accepted the Senate amendment to the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption and sent the bill to President Wilson.

An attempt led by Representative Moss, Republican, of West Virginia, to substitute the Senate amendment to the tolls repeal bill, with an affirmative declaration of the right of the United States to discriminate in favor of its own ships, was defeated in the House, 174 to 108.

Washington, June 12.—The question of making the Panama Canal

free to American vessels was brought to the front when the House, on May 23, 1912, incorporated in the act providing for the establishment of civil government in the canal zone, a provision authorizing the President to charge tolls to vessels using the canal, with a proviso exempting American coastwise vessels from such charges. President Taft, in a message to Congress had urged the exemption. The bill had been reported to the House providing tolls for all vessels but the exemption provision was adopted as an amendment. This amendment was in the bill as

KING CHOKES PARLIAMENT

By Associated Press.

Copenhagen, Denmark, June 12.—King Christian X of Denmark today placed an unexpected obstacle in the way of the plan of the Danish cabinet to solve the deadlock in electoral reform, the principal feature in which was the woman suffrage plank, by dissolving the upper house of Parliament.

The king objected to the inclusion in the dissolution of twelve members of the upper house nominated by himself and declared that he wished only the other 54 members to be affected. Radical politicians have advised the cabinet to resign unless the king gives way.

CANADA TO SAVE ANTELOPE

By Associated Press.

Regina, Saskatchewan, June 12.—The rescue and perpetuation of the rapidly disappearing Prong-horned Antelope is to be undertaken by the Canadian Government. To this end it enlisted the services of Ernest Thompson Seton, the naturalist, and Maxwell Graham, Chief of the Zoological division at Ottawa, who have outlined a scheme which promises success. This proposes the establishment of three fenced parks for antelope in different parts of their favorite range, on areas not desirable for agriculture and in regions that still contain wild antelope.

The first step was to outline the ancient and present range of the antelope, then to ascertain the probable number at large. The combined evidence of many game wardens and mounted police shows that there are yet between one thousand and fifteen hundred antelope still at large in the Canadian Northwest.

Prior to the hard winter of 1906 and 1907, there were at least ten times as many; but that long, fierce spell of frost and deep snow killed them off by thousands. In the spring when the starving remnants were making their way north over the frozen Saskatchewan, the rotten ice gave way, according to one ranchman, and five hundred were engulfed on one occasion as he watched them from the bank.

Seton Graham, acting for the Dominion Government, set out on the 9th of May to select the lands needed. Three parks have been secured, one in each of the prairie provinces: Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. On the two former the wild antelopes still range. All the conditions, climatic, topographic and botanic, have been pronounced perfect. Each park will be about thirty-six square miles in extent. Fencing will begin this summer; it will be horse-high, bull-strong and coyote-proof. A competent warden will be in charge and in residence in each. As soon as the snow comes a careful drive will be organized to stock the fenced ranges.

DEATH RIDES IN THE STORM

By Associated Press.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 12.—During a severe electrical storm, which swept over this district last night, 20 houses were destroyed by fire at the Moundsville camp grounds and two men killed by lightning. The fire started when the home of James Bodley, at the camp grounds, was struck by lightning.

J. R. Manley, of Westonburg, W. Va., was killed by lightning while riding on a street car in Holton, a suburb. An unidentified man was struck by lightning east of Wheeling and killed.

BOYS' CONGRESS SHOWS GROWTH

Tremendous growth will be shown at the third Ohio State Boys' Congress which meets at Youngstown, June 15 and 16 as a preliminary feature of the State Sunday School Convention at the same place June 16, 17, and 18.

Nine months ago at the Lima convention only four of the eighty-eight counties were organized, at the Youngstown convention 30 counties will be represented by organizations and many others are in prospect. It is conservatively estimated that two years will see the entire state organized. Already the Boys' Congress has proved its efficiency, and Sunday school leaders have arranged to organize a Girls' Congress along similar lines at the Youngstown convention.

At the Boys' Congress the boys arrange and give all the program, the scope and value of which may be gauged by the following papers which will be read: "The Standard of Honor as the Boy Sees It," "What the Church Means to Me," "The Boys' Congress Idea of Manhood," "Relative Influence of the Adult and Secondary Division in the Sunday School," "The Standard of Christian Athletics," "Making the Sunday School Attractive."

Papers which will be read at the Girls' Congress are: "The Girl and Her Talents," "The Girl in the Sunday School," "The Advantages of the Rural School," "The Possibilities of the City School," "The Girls' Opportunity for Service."

AFTERNOON CLOSING HINGES ON ONE MAN

It is announced that the Wednesday afternoon closing of grocery stores and meat markets, hinges on the decision of one man, who has so far refused to join the others in closing.

If the one dealer who is holding out will agree to close, the first half-holiday may be observed next week, and the practice observed as last summer.

Matinee races and baseball games are planned, one of the attractions to be given each Wednesday afternoon, if the closing becomes effective.

MY MOTHER--- A PRAYER

The Herald is indebted to Mr. S. A. Murry, of Washington, D. C., for a copy of "My Mother, a Prayer," written by Tom Dillon, one of the most talented writers of the Pacific coast and read to the House, with unanimous consent by Cong. Humphrey, of Washington. In presenting this touching tribute to mother, Mr. Humphrey said, "It will find a fervent response in the heart of every real man."

Mr. Murry is a well known citizen of this city, who left here some time ago to accept a responsible position in the Document room of the House of Representatives.

(By Tom Dillon.)

For the body you gave me, the bone and the sinew, the heart and the brain that are yours, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the light in my eyes, the blood in my veins, for my speech, for my life, for my being. All that I am is from you who bore me.

For all the love that you gave me, unmeasured from the beginning, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the hand that led me, the voice that directed me, the breast that nestled me, the arm that shielded me, the lap that rested me. All that I am is by you, who nursed me.

For your smile in the morning and your kiss at night, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the tears you shed over me, the songs that you sung to me, the prayers you said for me, for your vigils and ministrations. All that I am is by you, who reared me.

For the faith you had in me, the hope you had for me, for your trust and your pride, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for your praise and your chiding, for the justice you bred into me and the honor you made mine. All that I am you taught me.

For the sore travail that I caused you, for the visions and despair, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the peril I brought you to, the sobs and the moans I wrung from you, and for the strength I took from you, mother, forgive me.

For the fears I gave you, for the alarms and the dreads, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the joys I deprived you, the toils I made for you, for the hours, the days, and the years I claimed from you, mother, forgive me.

For the times that I hurt you, the times I had no smile for you, the caresses I did not give you, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me for my angers and revolts, for my deceptions and evasions, for all the pangs and sorrows I brought to you, mother, forgive me.

For your lessons I did not learn, for your wishes I did not heed, for the counsels I did not obey, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me my pride in my youth and my glory in my strength that forgot the holiness of your years and the veneration of your weakness, for my neglect, for my selfishness, for all the great debts of your love that I have not paid, mother, sweet mother, forgive me.

And may the peace and the joy that passeth all understanding be yours, my mother, forever and ever. Amen.

Tax Rate Must Be Lowered

The work of the district tax assessor for this county, and his assistants is concluded in so far as that work has to do with the listing of property for taxation.

Great promises have been made for the efficiency of the machinery provided, in that taxation legislation enacted by the last General Assembly of Ohio, known far and wide throughout the state as the "Warnes law."

The people of the state were promised that the method of listing property for taxation which the new law provided, would prove to be the long sought means of bringing large amounts of personal property, which had been escaping taxation, onto the duplicate. Perhaps no law enacted in recent years by the state legislature has been met with the violent opposition that the Warnes law has encountered.

The new system provided for and used this year for the first time has abundantly proven, by results attained, its efficiency.

The work of the district assessor and his assistants in this county, has resulted in bringing upon the tax duplicate nearly two millions of dollars in personal property.

The great increase of personal property secured is in excess of the claims made by the most ardent advocates of the law.

Now that the Warnes law and the system which it provides have proven their worth, the next question in which the taxpayers are interested is, will the rate of taxation be lowered in proportion to the increase in the duplicate. If not there is no relief.

The people have come forward and listed their personal property for taxation more liberally than ever before and they demand that the rate of taxation be reduced accordingly.

The Warnes law makes no provision for fixing the rate of taxation. The method of arriving at the rate of taxation remains, practically as it was before the enactment of the Warnes law and it is to the officials whose duty it is to gather together the data and fix the rate which is to attach to the property listed on the 1914 duplicate, that the people now look for beneficial results.

Any public official who, for political effect, seeks to maintain the present rate of taxation in spite of the big increase in the duplicate is certain to reap a harvest of public condemnation.

Taxpayers cannot be misled by false statements—they cannot be told, with any reasonable hope of being believed, that with no occasion for extraordinary expenditures of the public funds, the rate of taxation cannot be lowered when we have nearly two million dollars more property upon which to levy the tax.

The real estate owner and the small home owner are entitled to the full proportion of relief which the increased duplicate warrants and they are going to receive it or hold the officials who refuse to grant relief now that it is in their power to do so, responsible.

No official, appointive or elective, will be able to justify his conduct in keeping up the rate of taxation in view of the present conditions.

Most Serious World Question Is Awakening of Japan and China

By the Rev. Dr. WILLIAM PIERSON MERRILL of Brick Presbyterian Church, New York

THE best and surest safeguard against war with Mexico will be persistent and widespread application of the Golden Rule in the thinking and conduct of American people toward Mexican people.

Even more strong and clear is our duty as followers of Christ in the matter of our relations with nations of Asia. There is the great peril of the future. JAPAN IS AWAKENED; CHINA IS AWAKENING. What will it mean to the world when those millions are equipped with modern knowledge and modern methods and inflamed with a PASSION FOR THE RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF THEIR OWN RACE? That is the most serious world question of our time. It is our part to brand war as unthinkable between America and the orient, to denounce the talk of war as treason to the kingdom of God, to welcome intercourse and exchange of thoughts and visits.

I HAVE BEEN HAUNTED BY A DREAM, WILD PERHAPS, YET SEEMING MOST BEAUTIFUL AND POSSIBLE—A DREAM OF THIS COUNTRY OF OURS, SO WONDERFULLY SUCCESSFUL IN BREAKING DOWN PARTITIONS BETWEEN RACES, BETWEEN STATES, BETWEEN CLASSES, DARING AT LAST TO TAKE THE SUPREME STEP AND SAYING TO THE WORLD: "KEEP UP THE FENCES IF YOU WILL. I TAKE MINE DOWN. I REFUSE TO ASSUME ANY LONGER THAT WAR IS NATURAL AND INEVITABLE. HENCEFORTH I SHALL ASSUME THE NATURALNESS OF PEACE. WHATEVER YOU DO IN THE WAY OF THREATENING ARMAMENTS I SHALL ASSUME THAT NO ONE WANTS TO ATTACK ME. I SHALL DEFEND MYSELF. BUT I REFUSE LONGER TO BASE MY POLICY ON DISTRUST AND HATRED AND THE EXPECTATION OF WAR."

Poetry For Today

A JUNE-TIME THOUGHT.

Oh, to be a boy again!
Fresh and fair and free as then
Freckles on your face and nose,
Bruises on your shins and toes.
What a joy
Just to be a barefoot boy!

Just to be a little tyke
Chasing lizards up the pike,
Rolling corn-silks for a smoke,
Making friends with poison-oak;
Just to be
Limber-legged and climb a tree!

Just to be a careless brat
With a ten-cent straw for hat,
And a shirt of muslin check
Minus button at the neck;
Just to wear
Clothes for comfort—let 'em tear!

Oh, to be a boy, and swim
In the creek with Joe and Jim,
Hold your breath and take a dive
Good and long, till—sakes alive!
Jim and Joe
Hold their breath, and holler "Oh!"
—St. Louis Republic.

EXTORTION SUSPECTED

Threatened to Blow Up a Trans-Atlantic Liner.

New York, June 12.—Out of the great throng of persons in City Hall park a man stepped toward the Nathan Hale statue and placed his hands on it. He remained that way for three minutes, finally removed his hat with his left hand and then disappeared in the throng.

The acts of the man were a signal that the Cunard Steamship company would pay $10,000 rather than have one of their ships blown up by dynamite. They were the prelude to the spectacular hunt and capture of Henry Westcott, a Spanish negro, in Bogota, N. J., by about twenty New York detectives, all armed with rifles, shotguns or revolvers. Westcott, who is accused of attempted grand larceny and extortion, and who, according to the police, has confessed that he engineered alone the plan of trying to get $10,000 from the Cunard officials, was nabbed just after he had picked up a package supposed to contain the amount in bills from the tracks of the West Shore railroad in Bogota. The package had been dropped from the rear car of a train.

BITTER DREGS SUFF'S PORTION

London, June 12.—The inquest into the death of Lavender Guthrie, a one-time prominent suffragette, who committed suicide in a flat where she had been employed under the name of Laura Greaves as a scrubwoman, revealed a sad tragedy. Mrs. Ballie Guthrie, the girl's mother, testified regarding her unsuccessful attempts to bring her rebellious daughter home. Approaching motherhood was given as the final motive of her self-destruction.

WELL GAS KILLS

Cincinnati, O., June 12.—Meyer Bender is dead, another man is in a precarious condition, while a third was overcome, but will recover, as a result of coming in contact with gases from an abandoned well. Bender went into the well to recover a brush that had been dropped into it and was overcome. The others attempted to rescue him.

AUTO HITS POLE

Cleveland, O., June 12.—Five men were injured, one probably fatally, when an automobile in which they were riding collided with a telephone pole. Those hurt are: Frank Gear, probably fatally injured; James Cassidy, George Harmon, J. A. Moore and John Hanley.

FACE CRUSHED

Kenton, O., June 12.—With his nose torn off and his jaws crushed by a piece of flying iron from a machine, James Keith of Belle Center died at a hospital here. Keith was supervising work in his sawmill when the accident occurred.

Bellefontaine, O., June 12.—Mrs. Charles Fulton of Belle Center undertook to fill a gasoline stove while the fire was burning. In the explosion she was probably fatally burned.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Hyperidrosis.

There is a kind of functional disorder of the sweat glands that results in excessive perspiration. The scientific name for the condition is hyperidrosis. Those who suffer from hyperidrosis are usually not in the best of general health, and the nervous system is especially likely to be at fault. The treatment of the condition, whether its manifestations are local or general, should aim to build up the general health. Any good tonic that gives a flip to the general system and improves the circulation may relieve the trouble. Cold baths are often useful for their effect on the circulation. In cases where the hands or the feet are affected, immerse them for a few minutes in quite hot water, and then, after drying them with a soft cloth, dust them freely with boric acid powder. If the trouble is very annoying and does not yield to time or to simple remedies like these, consult a physician. The sweat glands themselves may be in a disordered state, and it may be advisable to use the X rays. Those rays have cured cases of hyperidrosis that have resisted every other form of treatment.

MADRID'S ARID SITE.

Parched and Dusty Now, It Was Once a Watered Garden Spot.

Travelers find it hard to believe that Madrid ever abounded with water. The modern town stands on so bleak and arid an eminence, its surroundings, save in early spring, are so parched and dusty and the water peddler's cry of "Agua! Agua!" is so insistent and ubiquitous one fancies Madrid must have been thirsty from the beginning.

Yet its ancient coat of arms was a large flint half immersed in water, with steel hatchets striking it on either side, the ascending sparks forming a sort of canopy around it. Appended was the motto:

I was built on water.
My walls are of fire.
Such is my emblazonment.

This device was emblematic only of the city and its early days before Charles V. had started it on its headlong career of greatness merely because he credited its climate with having cured him of a fever.

At that time Madrid was a small town embowered in gardens and woods and meadows and with springs and wells lavishly supplied by nature. The Manzanares, now a melancholy, meager stream, was of a measurable depth. But with the apportioning of her territory into palaces and lodging houses for the royal hangers-on and the cutting down of the trees to swell the royal treasury the inevitable followed. The sun of well nigh 400 summers has burned and reburned the site of the old town and its bestripped suburbs and dried up the natural moisture. At present the climate of Madrid is nearly the most trying in all Europe.—From Calvert's "Madrid."

Almost Had It.

SECRETARY ZANER TAKES UP NEW WORK NEXT WEEK

Following Completion of Successful Campaign, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Ray F. Zaner, Announces Withdrawal To Take Up New Work Monday of Next Week—Successor Not Yet Appointed.

General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Ray F. Zaner, who came to this city nearly four years ago and has remained with the local Association in the capacity of General Secretary until the last dollar of indebtedness has been lifted, announced Friday morning that his resignation, which he tendered some time ago, would be effective Monday of next week, owing to the demand that he assume his new duties as associate general agent of the Missouri State Life Insurance Company.

Mr. Zaner's successor has not yet been named, and may not be chosen for a short time, although several experienced men have applied for the position. Physical Director McClung will temporarily fill the office.

In severing his connection with the Y. M. C. A. as general secretary, Mr. Zaner leaves behind him a splendid record, as he began work in a community where Y. M. C. A. work was new, and it was necessary to begin at the very foundation and work upward.

Owing to the nature of his work the general public was not in position to see much of the actual results of his labors at the time they were done, but assisted by the local Y. M. C. A. workers he has laid the foundation for greater work, and leaves the institution in splendid condition.

The new work of Mr. Zaner will not require his removal from this city. The headquarters of the Missouri State Life Insurance Company are in Lima, and Mr. P. A. Altland, Mrs. Zaner's father, is the general agent of the company.

WORKERS WIN HARD FIGHT FOR $25,000

and unbroken chain of financial campaigns. The splendid system with which the campaign was conducted was an important factor in the accomplishment of desired results.

What the Workers Did.

An important item, in fact one of the most important items to the success of the campaign; an item that has been before mentioned and which the Washington public is fully familiar with but which is not to be lost sight of, is the donation of Mrs. Madeline Sharp Davies, always one of the Y. M. C. A.'s staunchest champions. Mrs. Davies donated the corner building of the Y. M. C. A. property some time ago, the only obligation attached, and that at the request of the Y. M. C. A. itself, being that the institution pay an annuity to Mrs. Davies the rest of her life of $1200 per year, providing that the amount realized from the building equaled that amount. As her donation to the campaign Mrs. Davies insisted that the annuity be cut in half, with the same provisions, which means an income to the Y. M. C. A. of $600 annually from this source alone.

Another contribution of note is that of the Hon. Humphrey Jones. Mr. Jones donated to the Y. M. C. A. $2,000, to be paid conditionally. The condition is that the money will be turned over to the institution in the event that it is in need of it in order to cancel indebtedness within the next three years.

To record all of the splendid contributions made by Washington and Fayette county men would be to consume reams of paper, without arriving at any definite figure, but prominently in the list of large and cheerful givers are the names of Mr. Wm. Worthington, chairman, Frank Fullerton, Charles Reid, Henry and Herbert Brownell, R. C. Peddicord, William Campbell, J. Earl McLean, Ben Jamison, James Ford, Craig Bros., Jess W. Smith, Frank L. Stutson, George Inskeep, Robert Howat, Frank C. Parrett, Nathan Creamer of Jeffersonville, W. W. Fenner, A. S. Ballard, George Jackson, Jess Millikan, A. F. Hopkins, W. E. Ireland, C. E. Lloyd, Dr. L. P. Howell, Elmer Hukill, H. G. Coffman, Mayor Charles F. Coffey, David Hopkins, Fred Creamer, Will Ford and as many as fifty others.

A pleasing feature of the closing hours of the campaign was the readiness shown at all times of Mr. Worthington to meet any conditional offer calling for a duplication.

If ever the men of Washington and Fayette county were shown in their true light it was during the concluding hours of the campaign Friday night, and collectively they measure up to a standard of about 99 per cent., genuine.

State Secretary Talks.

State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, A. H. Lichty, who took an active part in the local campaign during the past few days, is unstinted in his praise of the men who went forth and devoted time and money to the lifting of all indebtedness from the local association.

"During the past four years I have assisted in raising nearly $2,000,000 in this state for the Y. M. C. A., but never before have I seen odds greater than those under which the local men labored," said Mr. Lichty, "and the men who did the work are the ones who have once more brought honor to the city and spread its fame throughout the Y. M. C. A. world, while the achievement here helps other similar movements elsewhere."

Continuing Mr. Lichty said in part: "I have never seen harder work on the part of campaigners than that put forth here, and the remarkable part of it is that some of the men who had previously subscribed liberally and devoted much time and effort to the work, did not flinch when it came to the final show-down and more money was required to reach the goal."

"Your Association is now in a splendid financial condition, and has passed through a great crisis and the men and women, too, who have done the work, are deserving of the greatest praise that can be given them."

Mr. Lichty stated that he will return to this city for a week during the early fall, and assist in shaping the work for the winter. He pointed out how the local Y. M. C. A. has been handicapped, and how it can now go forward in carrying out work which previously has been impossible. The committee in turn has praised Mr. Lichty for his efforts, and a warm friendship has arisen between him and every one with whom he has come in contact.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans and daughter, Miss Isabel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pyley, Mr. Allen Martin attended the funeral of Mrs. Evan's brother, Mr. C. L. Evans.

DEATH CLAIMS MILTON NOBLE

Mr. Milton D. Noble, aged 55 years, died at his home on South Fayette street, at 10:30 Friday morning, after nine years of suffering from bone cancer, an affliction which he bore uncomplainingly.

Mr. Noble was born in Pickaway county and spent his early life in Ross county, moving to this county some 24 years ago, where he has since resided. He was for many years a dealer in live stock.

With the appearance of the affliction which caused his death, Mr. Noble employed the best physicians and surgeons to combat the ravages of the affliction, and during the past few years he has undergone 14 operations and a few months ago went east where he took Dr. Kelley's radium treatments, obtaining little or no relief through the treatment.

The deceased leaves a widow and two small sons, Davis Milton and Geo. M. He also leaves four brothers, John, of this city; C. H. Noble, of Clarksburg; Lafayette N. Noble, of New Holland, and George M. Noble, of Bluffton, Ind., besides two sisters, Mrs. Ad Duff, east of town and Mrs. Dora Dick, of Chicago.

Funeral services will be held at the First Baptist church, Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, and interment will be made in the Washington cemetery.

FLOWER MISSION DAY LARGELY ATTENDED

The celebration of Flower Mission Day by the County W. C. T. U., at the County Infirmary Thursday, was rather a departure from previous custom, but a pronounced success throughout.

Instead of the former plan of visiting both the Infirmary and the Children's Home, Supt. and Mrs. Tway brought the children of the Home to the Infirmary for the celebration.

A picnic dinner in the beautiful grove of the infirmary farm was a feature of the day greatly enjoyed.

In the afternoon there was a delightful program given by the various unions of the county and the children of the Home.

All of the unions were largely represented, over 200 in attendance, and quantities of flowers presented. Supt. and Mrs. Frank Casey extended every courtesy to the guests.

OAK LAWN SCHOOL UNDER THE HAMMER

Oak Lawn school, one of Washington's oldest educational buildings, passes under the hammer Saturday afternoon. Since the erection of the handsome new building at Cherry Hill it has been of no further use.

The sale of the property, located on Clinton avenue has been ordered by the Board of Education and will be given to the highest bidder at an auction on the court house steps Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The proceeds of the sale will be applied to the public school fund and in furthering the educational advantages of Washington.

The old structure is nearly fifty years old and was the training place of not a few of Washington's more prominent sons and daughters.

HEAT SOFTENS VARNISH; DRESSES STICK FAST.

Pottsville, Pa., June 12.—The intense heat was responsible for a very awkward situation at the Hippodrome theater, where more than 1,000 persons, mostly women, were attending a midsummer operatic performance. When the curtain fell and the women prepared to leave many discovered they couldn't get up, at least without leaving parts of their pretty white dresses behind. The heat had softened the new varnish with which the seats had recently been painted and the women stuck fast. More than 200 women left the auditorium with ruined dresses.

In Social Circles

Washington society has never been considered a lovelier affair than the garden party, given by Mrs. David S. Craig, in compliment to her nieces, Mrs. Conrad Schweitzer, Miss Clara Maynard, of Waterloo, Ia.; Miss Mary Craig, Miss Charlotte Dahl and Miss Nina Dahl, Thursday afternoon. June had blossomed in all of its perfection and the picturesque home, with its wide sweep of velvet lawn, luxuriant trees and verdure, the background for a wealth of summer roses, beneath a canopy of blue sky, presented a scene of marvelous summer beauty.

The reception line formed on the immense side veranda, which resembled nothing so much as a beautiful conservatory, with bowls of roses and trailing green in the deep window embrasures, hanging baskets overhead and vines covering the stone pillars and framing a picture of the lawn, dotted with the rainbow tints of exquisite summer toilets.

Between three and four hundred guests were most cordially welcomed by the hostess and her charming quintet of nieces, who, with Mrs. T. H. Craig made up an extremely attractive receiving line.

Mrs. Craig was wearing a chic suit of white linen ratine, with embroidered batiste waist and girdle of moire.

Mrs. T. H. Craig wore white crepe with cluney lace garniture.

Mrs. Schweitzer's gown of white crepe shadow lace, draped over pink was singularly becoming to her fair type. Miss Maynard, a beautiful girl, with much charm of manner, wore rose embroidered crepe, having tier skirt, with white tunic.

Miss Mary Craig was handsome in white crepe, elaborately trimmed with lace and embroidery, and wide sash of turquoise blue moire taffeta.

Miss Charlotte Dahl, who is one of the most charming girls in Washington's younger set, wore white embroidered organdie and lace, with girdle of apple green.

Miss Nina Dahl looked pretty in ecru embroidered net, with two toned lavender girdle.

Assisting the hostesses were Mesdames H. B. Dahl, W. D. Craig, Ray Maynard, Clarence Craig, John Durant, Fuller Hess, Clarence Baer, Garrie Spragg, Misses Edith Gardner, Bess Cleaveland, Nelle Ireland, Mary Dahl, Doris Willis, Virginia Campbell, Aileen Hess.

A delicious summer collation was served under the big trees, and a huge bowl of fruit punch on tapis all afternoon.

Clusters of crimson ramblers were the guest favors.

Enjoying to the fullest extent the pleasure of the afternoon, and the cool breezes which mitigated the extreme heat of the day, the guests lingered until evening shadows were falling.

Among guests from out-of-town were: Mrs. J. L. Mahan, of St. Paul, Minn.; Mrs. Robert Palmer, of Cincinnati; Miss Marie Mobley, of Hope, Ark.; Miss Pauline Foster, of Waverly; Miss Helen Black, of Circleville; Mrs. James, Mrs. Frank Dill, of Jeffersonville; Mrs. H. K. Stewart, Miss Lora Martin, of Spring Hill farm, Mrs. Frank C. Parrett, Mrs. Marshall, of Parretts; Mrs. Val McCoy, Mrs. Roy Haglar, of Haglar's; Mrs. W. J. Galvin, of Jamestown.

A jolly party of the class of 1914 picnicking at Rock Mills Thursday evening included Miss Lillian Davis, and guest, Miss Marie Mobley, of Hope, Ark.; Misses Mary Weaver, Ada Woodward, Winona DeWitt, Bliss Casey, of Urbana; Howard Gray, Robert Lanum, Hubert Murray, Frank Thornton.

The June meeting of C. W. B. M. of the Christian church met with G. W. Blackwell Wednesday afternoon.

A very interesting program was rendered. Those taking part were: Mrs. Clifford Irvin, Miss Bernice Sessler, Mrs. Vangundy, who was the delegate to the state convention at Bowling Green, and gave a most interesting report from the convention.

The hostess served dainty refreshments and all enjoyed a social hour.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

BUCK RUN DISTRICT GOES TO GREENFIELD

At a joint meeting of the Board of Education of Buck Run Special School district, in Perry township, this county, and the Board of Education of Greenfield, a petition was presented from the Buck Run district asking to be annexed to the Greenfield school districts, and the request was unanimously granted so that now the Fayette school district in question is a part of the Greenfield district. W. A. Bonner, W. O. Beaty, C. E. Cockerill and W. L. Fulton compose the Buck Run Board of Education.

In addition to taking Buck Run district her wing, Greenfield also took every school in Madison township, Highland county.

REPEAL MEASURE PASSES SENATE

Long Struggle Ends In a Victory
For the Administration.

VOTE WAS FIFTY TO THIRTY-FIVE

Eleven Democrats, Twenty-three Republicans and One Progressive Line Up Against the Bill—Close of Debate Marked by Near Encounter Between Two Senators—Amended Measure Now Goes to the House.

Washington, June 12.—The amended bill repealing the tolls exemption clause affecting coastwise shipping of the United States in the Panama canal act, passed the senate by a vote of 50 to 35. Eleven Democrats voted against the repeal, but this loss was more than offset by thirteen Republicans who supported the president. One Democrat, Senator Walsh, was paired against the bill, and two Republicans, Lodge of Massachusetts and Stephenson of Wisconsin, were paired in favor of the bill.

The following senators voted against the bill: Ashurst, Chamberlain, Lane, Martine, Newlands, O'Gorman, Ransdell, Reed, Shields, Thomas and Vardaman—Democrats; H. Borah, Brady, Bristow, Burleigh, Catron, Clapp, Clark of Wyoming, Cummins, Dillingham, Dupont, Goff, Jones, LaFollette, Lippitt, Page, Perkins, Smith of Michigan, Smoot, Sutherland, Townsend, Warren, Weeks and Works—Republicans. 23. Progressives, 1. Total noes, 35. Borah and Pomeroy of Ohio both voted for the bill.

The measure now goes back to the house, which is expected to accept the Simmons-Norris amendment, specifically reserving all rights the United States may have had under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

The closing hours of the debate were signaled by a near encounter between Senators Vardaman of Mississippi and West of Georgia and also by a sharp personal colloquy between Vardaman and his colleague, Senator John Sharp Williams.

The trouble arose while Senator West was replying to Vardaman. The Mississippi senator, who has opposed the repeal of the tolls exemption law, had just concluded a speech in which he bitterly arraigned senators who have followed the president for repeal and had changed the views expressed by them when the tolls exemption bill was originally passed.

Near Encounter.

"The edict has gone forth from the White House," said Mr. Vardaman, and he added that this alone had saved the cause of repeal. Among other things Vardaman attacked the transcontinental railways and the Carnegie peace foundation for spending money to bring about repeal.

Replying to this particular charge, West, who was standing near Mr. Vardaman's seat as he spoke, said: "There has been much criticism indulged in on this side. I have tried to be indulgent and allowed the senators who occupied the opposite side of this question to view it as they saw fit. There has been charged here to the Carnegie foundation the expenditure of $30,000. Who knows but what the shipping interests have spent $100,000 in order to secure the defeat of this bill?"

"Have you been offered any?" inquired Mr. Vardaman, slowly rising and addressing Mr. West.

"Don't you say that to me," quickly retorted the Georgia senator.

"Well, you are making an intimation that somebody else has been," retorted Vardaman, advancing with clenched fists.

The senate was in great commotion, but order was soon restored.

Following the settlement for the time of the trouble, John Sharp Williams took occasion to lecture Vardaman.

UNDERWOOD HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Washington, June 12.—As Representative Underwood was riding to the Capitol on a streetcar a runaway team attached to a heavy wagon crashed into the conveyance, demolishing the front end of the car, splintering the wagon and killing both horses. Mr. Underwood was sitting on the forward cross seat of the car and was thrown to the floor. The pole of the wagon punched a hole through the front end of the car, missing Mr. Underwood by inches. His hand was cut by the flying glass.

ACCEPT DEMANDS OF THE MEDIATORS

American Delegates Prevent Disruption of Conference.

ACCEPT PLAN THEY OPPOSED

Selection of Provisional President of Mexico to Have the Sanction of General Huerta—Carranza Held to Have No Special Privilege in Settlement of Internal Affairs of Mexico—Mediators Play Last Card.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 12.—The United States government was forced not only to display its hand in the Mexican situation, but also to yield to the demands of the mediators.

For about one hour it was agreed on all sides that the conference was at an end. The mediators, exasperated by the long delay, decided to play their last card and to publish in full all the correspondence existing between them and Carranza, the Constitutional leader. This was done, despite the earnest protest presented by the American delegates on behalf of the state department.

One hour later Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, the American delegates, appeared at the Clifton House, and a full conference of all Mexican and American delegates and the South American envoys was held. Justice Lamar and Mr. Lehmann announced that the United States was willing to subscribe to the first plan for the settlement of the Mexican dispute submitted by the mediators more than two weeks ago.

The plan which the United States government now is willing to accept is the one which it has most bitterly opposed. It provides for the selection of a provisional president to take the place of General Huerta pending the holding of a constitutional election in Mexico. The selection of this new provisional president is, however, to be sanctioned by General Huerta. The manner in which the transfer of government is to take place and the exact form of succession have not yet been decided upon. The mediators have in this manner completely won the friendly fight in which they have been engaged with the American delegates. The decision arrived at is a vindication of their contention that Carranza is entitled to no special privilege in the settlement of the internal affairs of Mexico.

Documents Made Public.

The decision of the mediators to make clear their stand in the Carranza matter, regardless of the protests of the Washington government, was arrived at suddenly. The A. B. C. envoys agreed that their dignity would be greatly impaired by further delay. They felt that the time had arrived to disregard completely the Mexican rebels and to make clear

What Poll of Convention of Women's Clubs Shows.

Chicago, June 12.—Of the 1,716 delegates to the biennial session of the General Federation of Women's Clubs who are entitled to vote, suffragist leaders claim a majority. Illinois alone has 297 delegates and other suffrage states are said to be well represented.

The suffragists also assert that a poll of the resolutions committee, which has in its power the matter of action on the suffrage question, shows four of them in favor of the indorsement of suffrage.

The resolutions committee gained the power to decide if suffrage shall come before the convention when the report of the committee on rules and regulations consigning all resolutions to the resolutions committee was adopted at the first session. The least the suffragists expect is that a minority report of the resolutions committee will throw the whole question on the floor.

The report of the credentials committee, presented by Miss Grace Temple of Chicago, showed that Illinois, a suffrage state, has 297 delegates present, while the next largest number is eighty-one, from Ohio.

their own stand. Immediately thereafter the messages were given out.

The documents made public by the mediators include the telegram sent by the three envoys to General Carranza on May 3, in which they declare that they will withdraw their invitation to him if he does not consent to an armistice; the message sent to the mediators by R. Zuburan Capmany, and which was delivered here by Juan Urquidí; finally, the message sent from here by the mediators in reply to Zuburan's note.

The last one of these three documents is the only one which has not been printed, at least in part, previously. It contains an invitation to the Constitutional chieftain to take part in the mediation conference under certain conditions.

In a statement made by Justice Lamar after the conference, he said: "I am authorized by the mediators to say that we have substantially agreed on the first plan, which related to the transfer of authority and the establishment of government."

MAY DROP CARRANZA

Washington, June 12.—With the favorable developments at Niagara Falls came news also of a disturbing character from Vera Cruz. There were reports that General Funston had informed the war department of further movements of Huerta's troops near Vera Cruz and had expressed some opinion in favor of the extension of the American lines.

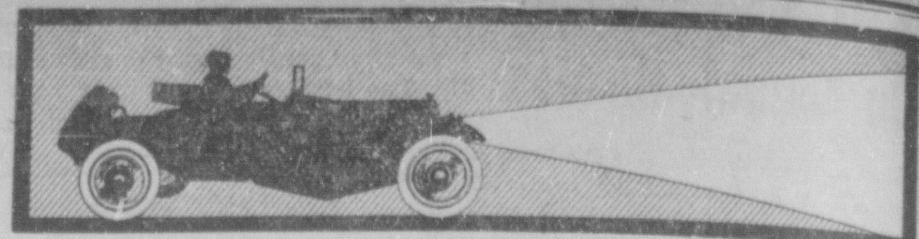

The news of the arrival at Tampico of the Ward liner Antilla with arms and ammunition on board for the rebels added further to the uncertainties of the situation.

The strong likelihood that Carranza has now been finally barred from the Niagara Falls conferences led to much speculation here as to the course of the United States at Niagara Falls in the immediate future. While as a general principle this government will maintain that there can be no settlement by mediation without the consent of the Constitutional.

MANY DEAD IN FRANCE

By Associated Press.

Cerebre, France, June 12.—A jail governor was assassinated and a large number of convicts wounded and killed as the result of a revolution in the Spanish prison of Figueras just over the frontier line of Catalonia. The convicts took advantage of the absence of most of the prison guards whose attention was attracted by a procession outside the jail in celebration of the religious festival of Corpus Christi.

QUARTER MILLION IDLE FREIGHT CARS

At the present time there are in round numbers 250,000 idle freight cars in the United States. The geographical distribution of these idle "empties" shows that all sections of the country are about equally affected. Perhaps the southwest is a little more fortunate than the rest of the country.

The iron and coal roads are blocked with idle equipment. Never before in the history of the country, except in the great depression of 1908 that followed the acute panic of October, 1907, have there been as many idle cars as today. Their number is steadily increasing. The grain carriers hope that with the movement of the crops they will make a better showing. A prominent railroad man, discussing this situation yesterday, said:

"We see nothing 'psychological' in this state of affairs. This is not any mental hallucination, but a mighty serious problem. Every idle car means an actual loss of money."—Enquirer.

SENATOR VARDAMAN

In a Near Encounter With Senator West of Georgia.

TOLLS EXEMPTION REPEAL ADOPTED

It went to the Senate.

Before the bill passed the Senate, Great Britain, on July 11, 1912, filed a formal protest against the proposed exemption. The note transmitted to the State Department contended:

"The British Government thinks that to allow American vessels to pass through the canal without the payment of tolls would be to violate the Hay-Pauncefote treaty whether the tolls are not collected, or whether if collected they are refunded. As to coastwise trade, the British Government thinks it would be difficult to frame a provision which would not do injustice to their interests."

The Hay-Pauncefote treaty superceded the Clayton-Bulwer treaty under which Great Britain and the United States were, jointly, to build the canal. The Hay-Pauncefote agreement, after providing rules for the regulation of the canal, based on the rules governing Suez canal traffic, set forth:

"The canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations observing these rules on terms of entire equality, so that there shall be no discrimination against any such nation or its citizens or subjects in respect of the conditions or charges of traffic or otherwise. Such conditions or charges of traffic shall be just and equitable."

The British note of protest started a lengthy diplomatic correspondence on the subject. Great Britain throughout claimed that the United States could not, under the terms of the treaty, make toll exemption of any vessels, whether its own, or of other nations. Secretary Knox, who conducted the correspondence for the United States, in several lengthy notes contended that the exemption of American coastwise shipping was in no way a discrimination against other traffic using the canal. He asserted that the exemption was in the nature of a subsidy, paid, not by imposing the tolls for certain American vessels upon other ships passing through the canal, but by the American taxpayers themselves in paying for the maintenance of the canal.

"The avoidance of possible friction," said the note, "has been one of the main objects of those methods of arbitration of which the United States has been for so long a foremost and consistent advocate."

Throughout the first year of President Wilson's administration there was a constant agitation for the repeal of the exemption clause. The President let it be known that he favored the repeal, and on March 5, 1914, he delivered an address to Congress in joint session, earnestly urging the repeal. The exemption, he said, was a "mistaken economic policy" and was "in plain contravention of the Treaty."

"The large thing to do," said the President, "is the only thing we can afford to do; a voluntary withdrawal from a position everywhere questioned and misunderstood. We ought to reverse our action without raising the question whether we were right or wrong, and so once more deserve our reputation for generosity and the redemption of every obligation without quibble or hesitation."

"I ask this of you in support of the foreign policy of the Administration. I shall not know how to deal with other matters of even greater delicacy and nearer consequence if you do not grant it to me in ungrudging measure."

Speaker Clark, Majority Leader Underwood, and other Democratic leaders in the House opposed President Wilson's demand for the repeal, but after a vigorous legislative struggle the House, on March 31 passed the Sims repeal bill. The measure then went to the Senate.

In the Senate, the fight was prolonged and brought the leading debaters of that body to the front. Party lines were largely eliminated. Senator Root and Senator Lodge were prominent among the Republicans who supported President Wilson's position in debate and with their votes; the fight against the repeal was led from the Democratic ranks, with Senators O'Gorman and Chamberlain leading the opposition to the President.

CAPITALIST DEAD

By Associated Press.

Philadelphia, June 12.—Thomas Dolan, 82, one of the wealthiest men in Philadelphia, and once a member of the Widener-Elkins-Whitney St. Railway Syndicate, died today at his home in Torresdale, near here. The son of a poor toll-gate keeper, Mr. Dolan started business life as a clerk, entering the textile trade and becoming one of the largest textile manufacturers in Philadelphia. He later went into finance and became interested in street railways which made him a large fortune.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, June 12.—The question of woman suffrage will receive the fullest consideration at the conference of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. She was greeted with a storm of applause.

THREE EFFORTS TO BURN CHURCH

By Associated Press.

London, June 12.—A determined attempt was made by militant suffragettes today to burn the ancient church of St. Margaret's at Chipstead fourteen miles southeast of London. Three distinct fires were fed by fire-lighters composed of squares of felt saturated with oil, set by the arson squad. The flames were extinguished before the church was much damaged.

BIG FIRM CAUGHT

By Associated Press.

Chicago, June 12.—Notice was posted on the Board of Trade today that Sidney Long & Company had failed to pay their debit balance at the clearing house. The firm has been active on the bull side of the wheat market which has recently suffered a sharp decline.

Friendliness of London.

There is no friendliness like the friendliness of London. Six or seven years ago I went rather frequently to a certain tea shop, which has every afternoon a crowd of men taking their tea and playing dominoes and chess. We used to talk occasionally, but none of us ever knew the name of any of the others. Then for five years I did not go near the place until one day when I dropped in almost by accident. At once there was a greeting and a welcome from at least half a dozen. The other day I went in again after another absence of six months, and the greeting was the same. This will do to tell those people who insist that London is an unfriendly place.—London Citizen.
